This Meeting's Business:

1st Item of discussion: Old Business

Sees Candy update:

Our profit is $792.27

Paper order forms are not effective

Online store with Zeffy was more effective

If we want to do less fundraisers we need to promote the ones we do more and make more money or we need to keep doing more fundraisers

Show Band Uniforms:

School will pay for show band uniform cleaning we just need to arrange drop off and pickup of uniforms

Whidbey Island Culture Fest:

Booths were filled up by the time we tried to register for the Whidbey Island Culture Fest. This is something we wanted to do with the band club so next year we need to register as soon as possible to get a booth that is not for selling.

2nd item of discussion: New Business

Info from Mr Petty:

Senior awards

He would like to give plaques to the kids instead of paper certificate 4x6 plaque or acrylic. Four total awards.

Band Trip

Disney is off the table not even interested. We need to start small.

Possible idea to participate in the Armed Forces Torch Light Parade in Spokane in May and also go to Silverwood amusement park

Dr Keyes is donating 6 packs of music stands to the band.

Fundraiser for next year: Spaghetti dinner fundraiser with Jazz band as entertainment

Band shirts are available at Ashleys. Idea to sell a band jacket for kids to buy as an alternative to a letterman jacket.

We need 4 Volunteers for the parade on May 3

Band/Guard Awards Night Banquet:

June 10 or 11 Elks Lodge is available cost is free

Pasta and salad and dessert

Catering: need to get quotes from Chef in the Black Bandana and Elks Lodge catering

Phantom of the Opera theme

Budget: $1600 for food and venue

Winter Guard:

They placed Second place at their competition!!

Parents donated food so did not use any of the $300 Budget
Need students to volunteers for the Winter Guard Showcase on April 25

Winter Guard Showcase April 25. Will Need student and adult volunteers.
adult to sell the Krispy Kreme donuts and possibly sell pizza slices. Water, soda, chips, cotton candy, pixie sticks.

Cheree Adams motioned to approve spending $150 to buy the concessions,
